REPORT

Crestview Elementary School

Jodi Husting, Principal at Crestview Elementary School, is excited to share some of the changes and improvements that are taking place with the Crestview after school Targeted Services programming. Partnerships with Nutrition Services and Community Education have helped to increase attendance and provide additional opportunities for our students.

Woodbury Middle School

Kari Lopez, Principal at Woodbury Middle School, will share how Woodbury Middle School staff supports personalization through instruction and building relationships with all students. Throughout the year teachers intentionally create a supportive community and build relationships with all students using systems such as good news cards and check and connect. Teachers see students as individuals and use various methods to personalize learning in order to create instructional experiences where students reach mastery of the learning objectives in varying ways.

Valley Crossing Elementary School

Dr. Lela Olson, Principal at Valley Crossing Elementary School, will highlight the District's Multiage Choice Program that is located at the school. The program, its benefits, and the enrollment procedure will be described.
