

Four-Year Graduation Rate Continues Upward Trend at South Washington County Schools

The four-year student graduation rate for the class of 2019 continued its upward trend with 93.3 percent of students in the district graduating on time. The 2019 graduation rate is 1.2 percentage points higher than in 2018.

Districtwide: 2019 Four-Year Graduation Rate

Schools: 2019 Four-Year Graduation Rate

Other highlights

- Three schools saw an increase in graduation rates including East Ridge, Park and South Washington Alternative High Schools.
- The graduation rate for English Learner (EL) students increased 5.6 percentage points from 2018 to 2019 districtwide.
- Graduation rates for students who qualify for free or reduced-price lunch increased by 2.4 percentage points districtwide.